The White Hart, Church Street, St Austell, Cornwall, PL25 4AT | Tel: 01726 72100

The White Hart was originally built in 1769 as a two storey town house with walled gardens extending up East Hill. It was leased to Charles Rashleigh, a solicitor, who used it as his legal practice. When Charles moved from the house in 1799 it became a hotel using the license transferred from the original White Hart Hotel in Fore Street. The establishment passed through various ownerships until it was purchased in 1911 by Walter Hicks, the founder of St Austell Brewery and became part of the Brewery Estate.
